

Please do not weaken the New Jersey do not call law. Business already overload our mail boxes with sells matter. The last thing that we need after a hard days work is an unwanted call from someone trying to sale you something you don't want. TV, radio and mail ads are enough.